

Famous Italian goldsmiths and Aristocratic Jewels are the shining stars of Il Ponte Auction House on May 17-18

From the splendid historic frame of Palazzo Crivelli in Milan, il Ponte Auction House will present the finest selection of top international and Italian jewelry during its May 17-18 modern and antique Jewelry Action.

All lots are of private provenance and many belonging to aristocratic families. Worthy of mention are a lot acquired from the inheritance of Luchino Visconti, a jewel formerly owned by Princess Petronilla Poniatowsky Constance, daughter of the last king of Poland as well as a beautiful brooch that belonged to Maria Cristina di Savoia.

Highlights of the sale are these exquisite creations:

Lot 1829: Diamond ct.15,24 on white gold and diamond set http://www.lot-art.com/auction-lots/Diamond-ct1524-on-white-gold-and-diamond-set-g/1829-diamondct_1524_white_gold_diamond-18.5-ponte

Lot 1840: Kashmir sapphire, mixed cut ,of Ct. 5,78 on white gold diamond ring http://www.lot-art.com/auction-lots/Kashmir-sapphire-mixed-cut-of-ct578-on-white-gold/1840-kashmir_sapphire-18.5-ponte

Lot 1773: Three white, natural salt water pearl drops http://www.lot-art.com/auction-lots/Three-white-natural-salt-water-pearl-drops-of-grain/1773-three_white-18.5-ponte